Marjory worked at the Telecommunications Research Establishment (TRE) at Malvern Boys College, England, on the Microwave Radar Project during WWII and attended the University College Dundee (1941 - St. Andrews) for Maths and Physics. She then worked at the Ministry of Aircraft Production in September 1943. When WWII ended, she received her honours degree at St. Andrews.

David and Marjory met while working at Atomic Energy Research Establishment (AERE) in Harwell, England, were married in Dundee in 1952 and honeymooned in Paris. They sailed on the Empress of Canada that same year, arriving in Montreal and finally settled on Frontenac Crescent in 1957. This became her home until she passed. Marjory volunteered at the Deep River Library, was a supply teacher at Mackenzie and also a member of the Deep River Orchestra. Her passion was playing bridge and she lamented that the cards were getting worse in the last few months.

Mother to Bruce Walker (Regina Breza-Walker, deceased) of Deep River and Graeme Walker (John Espinosa) of Newmarket. Mother-in-law to Roberta Longley and Barb Till of Newmarket.

Grandmother to five: Peter (Sachil Patel), Amalia (Joshua Boorsma), Andrew (Bridget Kirkland), Erin (Tilo McCallister), and Katherine (Ibrahim Hatia). 'Spare' grandmother to Kevin Till (Rachel Joseph), Martin Till (Lisa Graham), recently married Erica Till (Antony Rodriguez).

Special thanks to Dr. Terry McVey, North Renfrew Long Term Care Services and all the staff at Champlain LHIN and DR&D hospital; especially the nursing staff, Cathy Everett, Colleen Whittier and Guy Frappier, for all their assistance and guidance. The family would also like to thank all the PSWs (Cindy, Lorraine, Sarah, and Charity) who assisted Marjory during her last phase of life and her at-home care assistants Heather Guzman and Julie Doucette. Much gratitude to Joanne Bigham, Helen Esilman and all of Marjory's long-time friends for their assistance and caring.

A celebration of Marjory's life will be held in August.
